

The Treasures of the Parliamentary Museum

The First Republic

Historical artifacts become a reality in 1976, 1977, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025.

The Second Republic

Text describing the legislative process and the role of the parliament during the second republic.

The Third Republic

Text describing the political and legislative developments during the third republic.

Text describing the role of the parliament and the legislative process.

Text describing the legislative process and the role of the parliament.

Text describing the legislative process and the role of the parliament.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

Text describing the historical significance of the flag.

The treasure house, which is the Museum of the National Assembly of Seychelles, is situated on the 1st Floor Lobby of the building. It preserves and showcases our rich parliamentary history from the late 19th Century to the present day.

The collections of the museum provides a ready record of the developments, achievements, experiences, ideas, persons and events in relation to parliamentary activities of Seychelles.

The acquisition, collection and preservation of objects, models, photographs, audios, videos, logos, gifts, original documents connected to the origin, growth, structure and functioning of the Parliament of Seychelles provide a stimulating space to educate and inform our people about our young democracy.

Portraits

The portraits of Speaker and Chairpersons of Seychelles Parliament provides a glimpse into the different styles of legislature over time in Seychelles and the role of the main Presiding Officers.

The portraits of the Long Serving Members of parliament on the other hand hold in high regards those who have stand the test of time in the political arena of Seychelles and served as parliamentarians for 15 years or more.

The Clerks to Parliament also hold a place in history in their role as administrator of Parliamentary Secretariat.

Evolution of Seychelles Parliament- "The timeline"

The timeline recounts the hurdles in the parliamentary history of Seychelles, beginning with the discovery of the islands, to the pre-independence years, the first, second and third Republic of Seychelles.

"Touching History"

The touching history collection comprises of maps, logos, videos, audios, photographs and documents using interactive screen technology to stimulate the minds of our young generation into understanding the past so as to influence the future.

Speaker Macgregor's Safari Jacket

The safari jacket that Speaker Macgregor wore for many years as Speaker of the National Assembly since 1993, brings to life the personalities that influenced democracy in Seychelles. The Safari suit was very fashionable in the 1980's and 1990's.

Gifts from Dignitaries/Parliaments

International Diplomacy has been high on the agenda of the Seychelles Parliament lately. A collection of fascinating gift items presented to the National Assembly delegations by foreign dignitaries and parliaments are exhibited to demonstrate its long standing relations with other Parliaments and countries across the world.

National Assembly Seychelles

Ile Du Port, P.O.Box 734
Victoria, Mahe, Seychelles

PARLIAMENTARY MUSEUM

EVOLUTION OF THE SEYCHELLES PARLIAMENT

